John Marsden Memories

- Memories of Roman with his head tilted in the huddle to hear the call in his good ear.
- That sly grin from Kohn.
- A mischievous giggle from Duff.
- Curry's spot on impression of Coach Prendergast.
- Nick disappearing in the distance heading for the end-zone.
- Coach Buscarini's shoes squeaking in Saturday morning meeting as he motivated freshmen before a game. "Champs or Chumps".
- How generous the coaches were with the water hose during summer sessions.

All fond memories of a special time spent with a great bunch of guys. We didn't win all of our games but even in the losses there was no "quit" in this team. An important quality that I hope remains with my brothers today.
